	1 Welcome to January. How many words can you make out of the word January?	2 Make a list of ways to help others. Choose at least one way to help others this month.	3 When reading a book, practice building fluency by reading the same page/paragraph 3 times.	4 After reading your book, sequence the events from your story by telling someone what happened in the book.	5 Read to your favorite stuffed animal.	6 Visit your local library and check out a book to read.
7 Visit www.storylineonline.net and read a book online.	8 Choose a family member, and write a note to tell them why they are special.	9 Read a book about penguins. Tell an adult about one thing you learned.	10 Read aloud to a sibling or stuffed animal.	11 Pilot Amelia Earhart was born today in 1897. Read about/research her accomplishments.	12 Organize your books. Make a pile that you no longer need and can donate to someone.	13 Choose a book to read for 10-20 minutes, and then tell a family member what you read.
14 Share your favorite book with a friend. Trade books if you can.	15 Today is Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. day. Read a book about MLK.	16 Make a reading fort out of blankets. Use a flashlight to read books in your reading fort.	17 Visit your local library.	18 Organize your books so they are easy to access. Choose one that you haven't read in a while to read.	19 Popcorn Day- What's your favorite popcorn flavor? Grab a bowl and munch while you read today.	20 Find a favorite family picture. Write a caption for it, and share it with your family.
21 Poll your parents. What are at least 5 activities kids can do today that your parents could not do when they were your age.	22 Find a book that makes you laugh. Read the funniest part to a family member.	23 Make a list of all of the steps you must take in order to bundle up to go outside.	24 What is your favorite book? Read it, and tell someone why it is your favorite book.	25 Visit www.storylineonline.net and read a book online.	26 Read in a quiet place for 10-20 minutes.	27 Choose your favorite book. Make an advertisement to share with your friends to persuade them to read the book.
28 Build your reading stamina. See how long you can read before you need a break. Can you read for at least 30 minutes or longer?	29 Find a cozy spot to read for 15-20 minutes.	30 After reading a book, describe the character and give evidence from the story that tells why you are describing him/her that way.	31 Visit your local library.
